

Every level consists of the following four modules :

- Reading Comprehension
- Speaking Skills
- Writing Skills
- Listening Skills

A1 Integrated Level :

An Overview :

Most importantly, the students learn the sentence structure in German. The German sentence structure is quite flexible and hence very different from English. Students learn the difference between Present Tense, Past Tense and Future Tense. Also, how one makes sentences with a helping verb and a main verb. After completing A1, students should be able to make Present and Future Tense sentences in their day to day life and understand Past Tense sentences.

Detailed Breakdown of the course :

- Learning Verbs endings
- Learning to make Present Tense sentences
- Learning all the W- Questions
- Learning Yes/No Questions
- Learning all the Prepositions (Akkusativ, Dative and Wechsel)
- Learning the Seperable Verbs
- Learning the Modalverbs
- Learning the irregular verbs
- Learning Dative Verbs
- Future Tense
- Partizip Perfekt Tense
- Imperative Sentence
- Learning to connect sentences with five conjunctions (und, oder, denn, aber, sondern)
- Learning to tell the advantages and disadvantages

- Understanding the difference between 12 forms of `the´ and nine forms of `a/an´
- Understanding the three cases : Nominativ, Akkusative and Dative
- Personal Pronouns ( ich, du, er, es....)
- Possessive Pronouns (mein, dein, sein.... )
- Difference between `nicht´ and `kein´
- Numbers
- Alphabets
- How to see and tell the time
- Learning all the adverbs (time and place related words)
- Adjectives and their opposites
- Irgend- words (anytime, anywhere, anyhow etc.)
- Difference between `wissen´ and `kennen´ ( both Verbs mean : to know)
- Difference between `verbringen´ and `ausgeben´ (both Verbs mean : to spend)
- Difference between `aber´ and `sondern´

A2 Integrated Level

An Overview :

After learning the sentence structure and three tenses (Present, Past Participle and Future) in A1, the level A2 focuses on learning to make complex sentences. The students learn how to make sentences with multiple main verbs in a sentence, i.e., how to more than one main verb in a single sentence. Also, they learn the use of all the conjunctions, which are used to connect multiple sentences and how the sentence structure gets affected, whenever we use a conjunction.

Students learn the second Past Tense , i.e. Präteritum (Simple Past). After finishing A2, we should be able to write formal/informal letters, hold a presentation on any topic telling its advantages and disadvantages and being able to understand and participate in day to day conversations.

Detailed Breakdown of the Course :

- Learning zu+Infinitive ( the rule to use multiple main verbs in a sentence)
- Learning all the conjunctions (Weil, obwohl, damit, so dass ..... )
- Difference between Conjunctions and Non Conjunctions
- Relative sentence ( using the definite article as connectors)
- Past Tense of Modal Verbs
- Präteritum (Simple Past)
- Learning a new helping Verb ` lassen ´
- Learning three special cases of zu +infinitive ( um/statt/ohne zu + Infinitive)

- Learning the Genitive Case
- Genitive Prepositions
- Mastering the three times Dative is used in German
- Adjective Endings
- Comparative and Superlative of Adjectives
- Learning Reflexive Verbs
- Usage of Reflexive Verbs in Akkusative and Dative
- Learning Da – Words ( dafür, danach, dazu, darunter....)
- Learning to give Presentations on any topic (Presentation Structure)
- Learning to write Formal and Informal Letters
- Learning to tell the Directions
- Learning to tell about body parts and
- Difference between als/wenn/wann
- Difference between nach/nachdem
- Difference between vor/bevor
- Difference between seit/seitdem
- Difference between unter/unten
- Difference between über / oben
- Difference between vor / vorne
- Difference between hinter / hinten

B1 Integrated Level

An Overview :

B1 enables the students to not only frame complex sentences with the help of connectors and zu+Infinitive, but also use very polished structures and phrases of German language in their day to day conversations. Here, we learn the difference between active and passive voice. Learning the passive voice enables the students to understand formal letters and formal conversations with an ease. The students also learn a lot of verbs with fixed prepositions. After doing B1, the students can participate in a detailed conversation with the native Germans and talk about each and every topic in a satisfactory manner.

Detailed Breakdown :

- Polishing the use of connectors and zu+Infinitive
- Learning the exceptions to zu+Infinitive
- Two-way connectors
- Active and Passive Voice
- Learning the tense Konjunktiv II
- Learning the tense Plusquamperfekt
- Learning to use two helping verbs within a sentence
- Reflexive Verbs in Dative
- Revision of 'Lassen' as a helping Verb

- Verbs with fixed Prepositions ( an extensive list of around 200 verbs)
- Learning the usage of Da – Compounds
- Learning new W – Questions (Wo-Wörter)
- Learning to start sentences with zu+Infinitive
- Genitive case and Genitive Prepositions
- How adjectives can work as nouns ( etwas Schönes)
- How Verbs can work as adjectives
- Difference between nach/nachdem
- Difference between vor/bevor
- Difference between seit/seitdem
- Difference between trotz/trotzdem
- Difference between statt/stattdessen
- so ein + Noun (so eine Person)